Old Business:

Oktoberfest planning update:

Special Thank you to Men's Club and Lions Club for wonderful job on River Clean up for clear passage of Ducky Derby.

Lori Fordham is doing good job. School Administration ready for Bed Race Challenge and encourages additional participants. Volunteers are welcome. An ad will go in the Enterprise Thursday. Weather looks great! Outside inquiries are coming in. All events set: Men's Club antique car/tractor show, Kid's Corner, Farmers Market/Trunkapalooza, Bed Races, Ducky Derby, Kids bike races. Recommendations from last year implemented.

Farmers Market: Linda Milkey stepping down. Interested volunteers see Ray Berg. Event is important to the community and has grown while under the watch of both Ron & Linda Milkey.
Thank you for your years of service.

New Business:

President's Report: September 11 conference with Mark Ouimet and Michael Finney, Jackson Citizen-Patriot meeting. Discussed declining press coverage of Manchester. Mark Ouimet from Washtenaw County discussed how SPARK is working on doing a better job reaching out to businesses west of Zeeb Road. <http://www.annarborusa.org/growth-expansion/news-of-note/Index.cfm?i=2902>

The conference was to listen to feedback and input from schools, chambers, elected officials, government. State of Michigan lost its millionth job. Reaching out countywide in conversation to open dialogue, and implement changes benefiting local chambers and government.

The on-line publication Concentrate only covers six communities, but will be adding Manchester per discussion at September 11 conference. SPARK to help get word out about good things happening in Manchester, and will listen to our needs. Critical for government to create environment where all parties win.

Ann Arbor Observer/Community Observer is mailed only to Manchester Chamber members, due to expenses.

Ray Berg came across an 1842 newspaper commenting on similar frustrations, which suggested taking Manchester and Grass Lake to create a new county. History does seem to repeat itself at times.

Jackson Citizens Patriot came to us, expanding to cover Chelsea & Manchester. Ray met with Leanne Smith from the Citizen Patriot @ The Coffee Mill and gave them a list of topics. Manchester sports play in Cascade Conference and expanded sports coverage in the Citizen Patriot is desired. Ann Arbor.com will not cover Manchester.

Tune in or visit www.48158.com to here Janet Larson every week on Wednesdays with Lucy Ann Lance show, 1290 Am radio at 10:20 AM. Discussing the Manchester Community news and events.

Daniel Lai stated the Enterprise/Heritage is now more regional with sports & hires freelance writers.

Teacher Appreciation: Chamber joins with Lions Club, Kiwanis and Optimist Club to extend nice breakfast as token of appreciation and welcome to a new and successful school year.

Christmas in the Village: Parking lot at Middle school pre-approved for parade. Parade route will start at Middle school and printed maps will reflect accordingly. Collecting names for vendors for advertisement and coordination of locations. Tecumseh Homefront ad will print October 1st - contact Ray Berg.
